

SDBC Youth Missions Trip 2019

San Francisco, CA

Details

Where: San Francisco, California in partnership with YouthWorks

When: Saturday, July 27-Monday, August 5

About San Francisco Bay Area

Your group will have the opportunity to partner with social service organizations throughout the Bay Area, especially organizations that serve those who are experiencing homelessness or have been displaced. You could also be serving with organizations such as the Salvation Army or Boys and Girls Clubs that are working to promote education and nutrition with children. In the evenings, you'll enjoy a night sightseeing in San Francisco, learning from local leaders about the issues affecting the Bay Area, and end the week with a cookout celebration.

Serving in San Francisco Bay Area

Students may serve all or part of the week at a food shelf, clothing distribution centre, soup kitchen, children's program or elder care facility.

Partner with local organizations to meet ongoing needs in the community.
